Our Memories of ...

The places we loved ...

Those who guided us ...

Those we know best—Seniors ...

Those who will follow—Juniors ...

Those new faces we greeted—Sophomores ...

Those we applauded ...

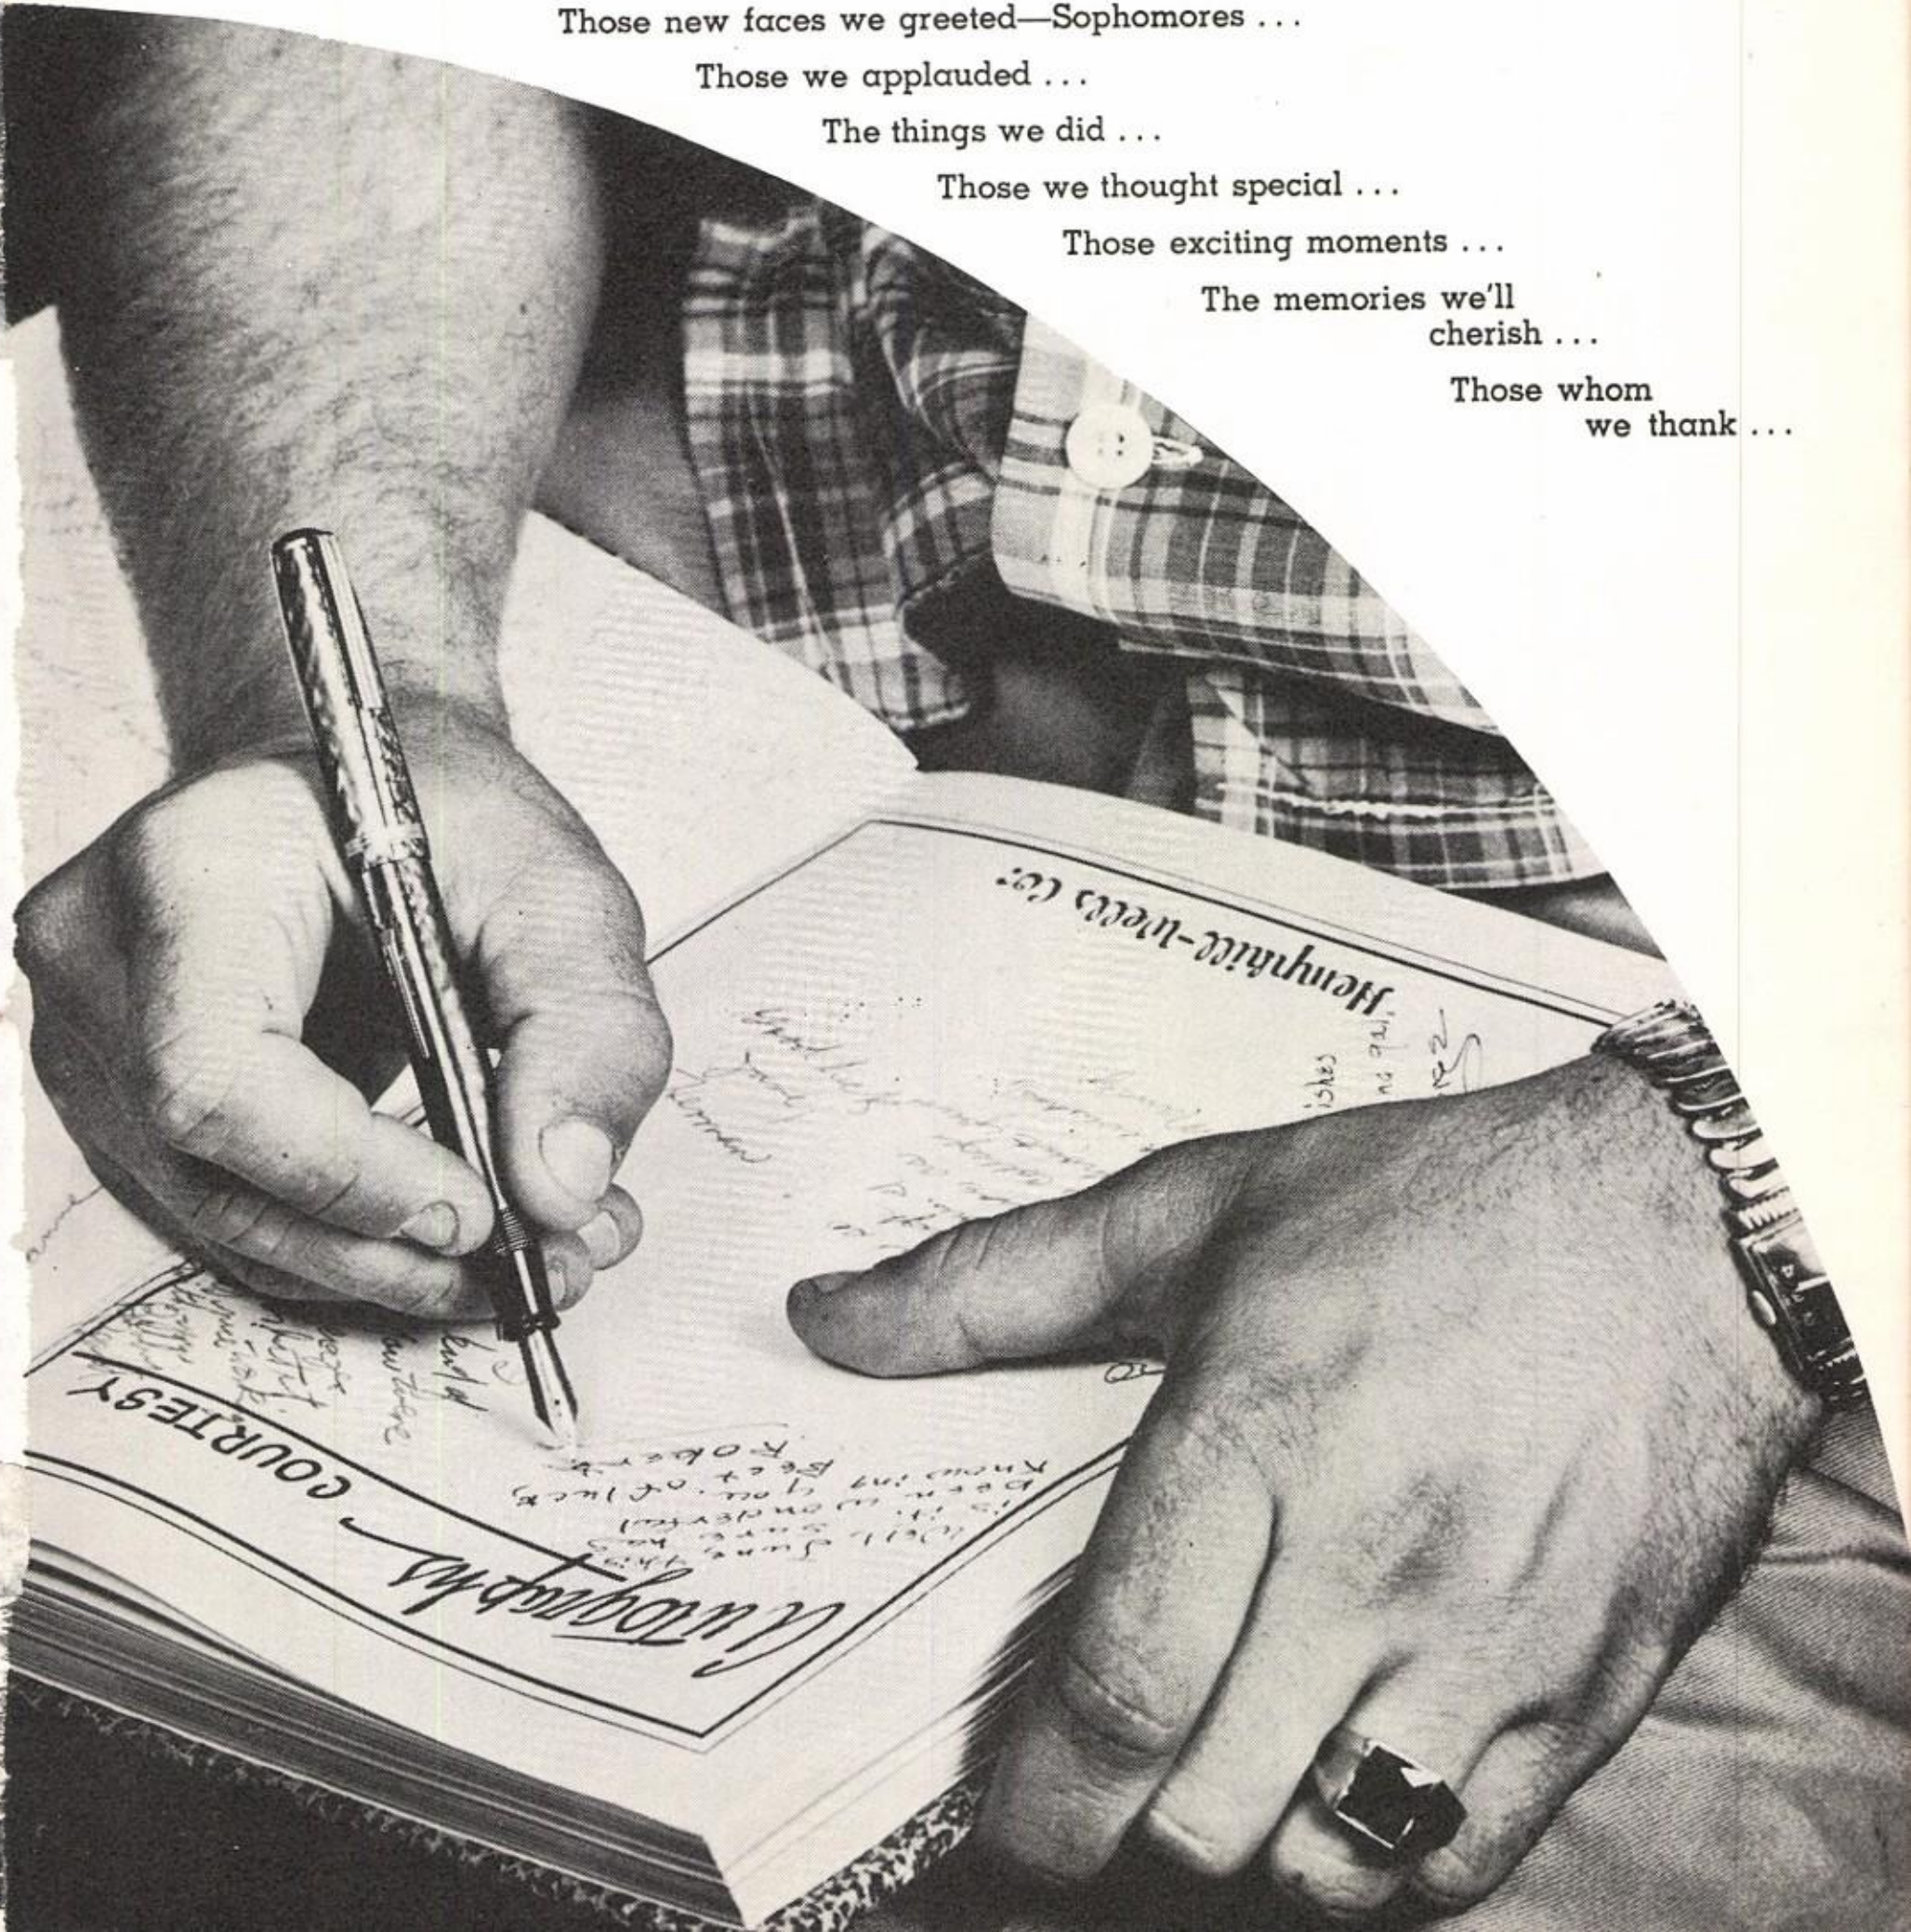

The things we did ...

Those we thought special ...

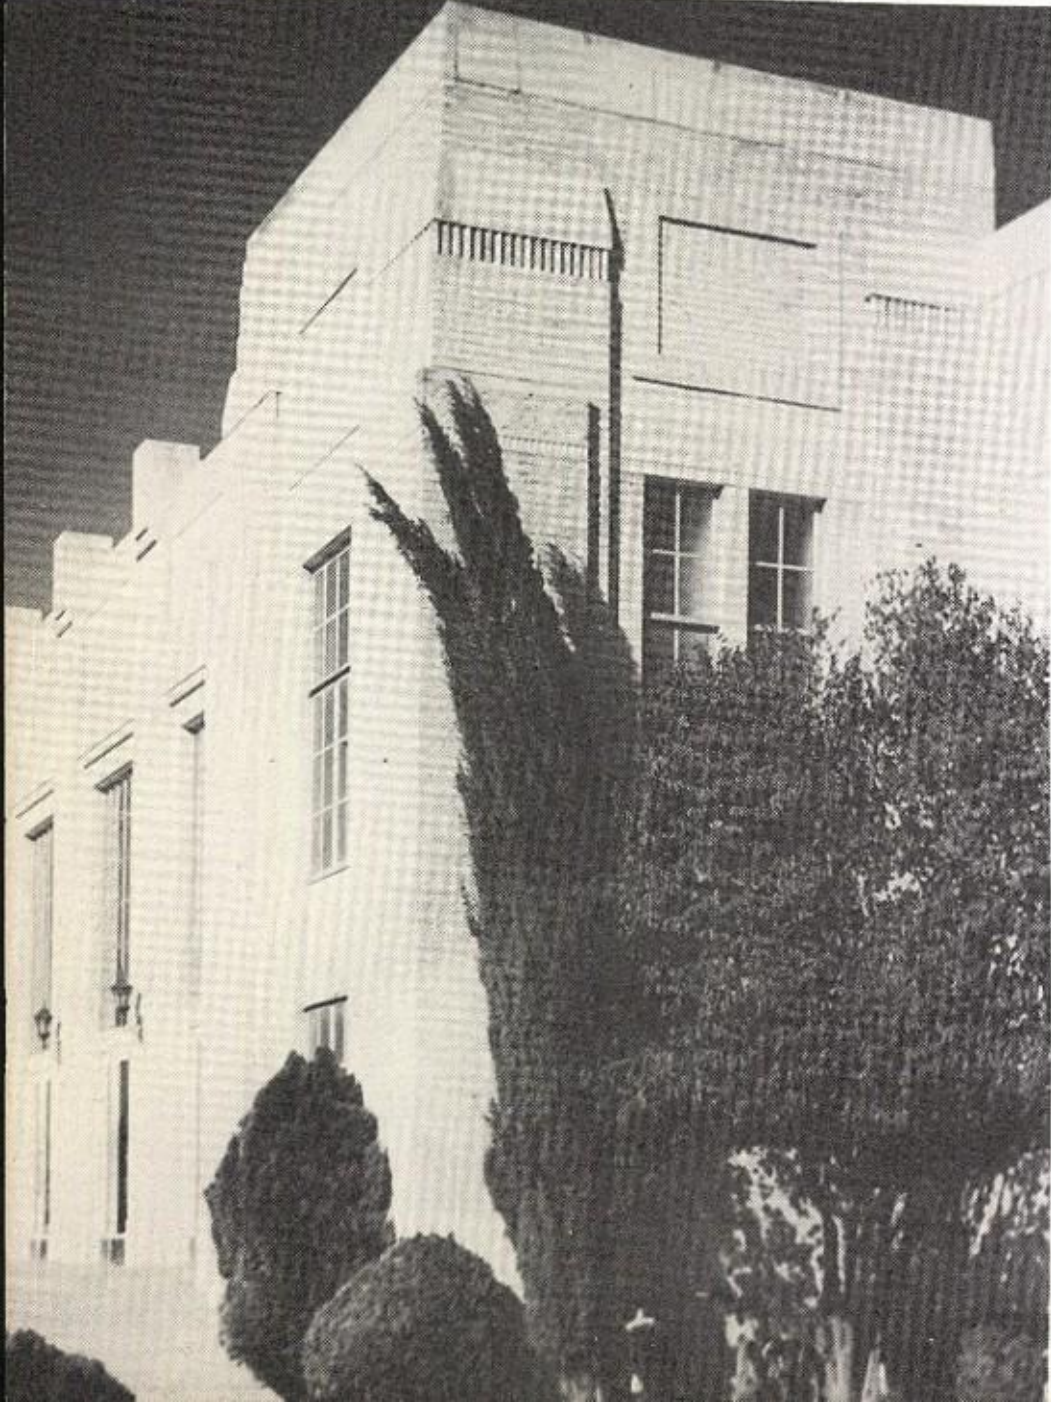

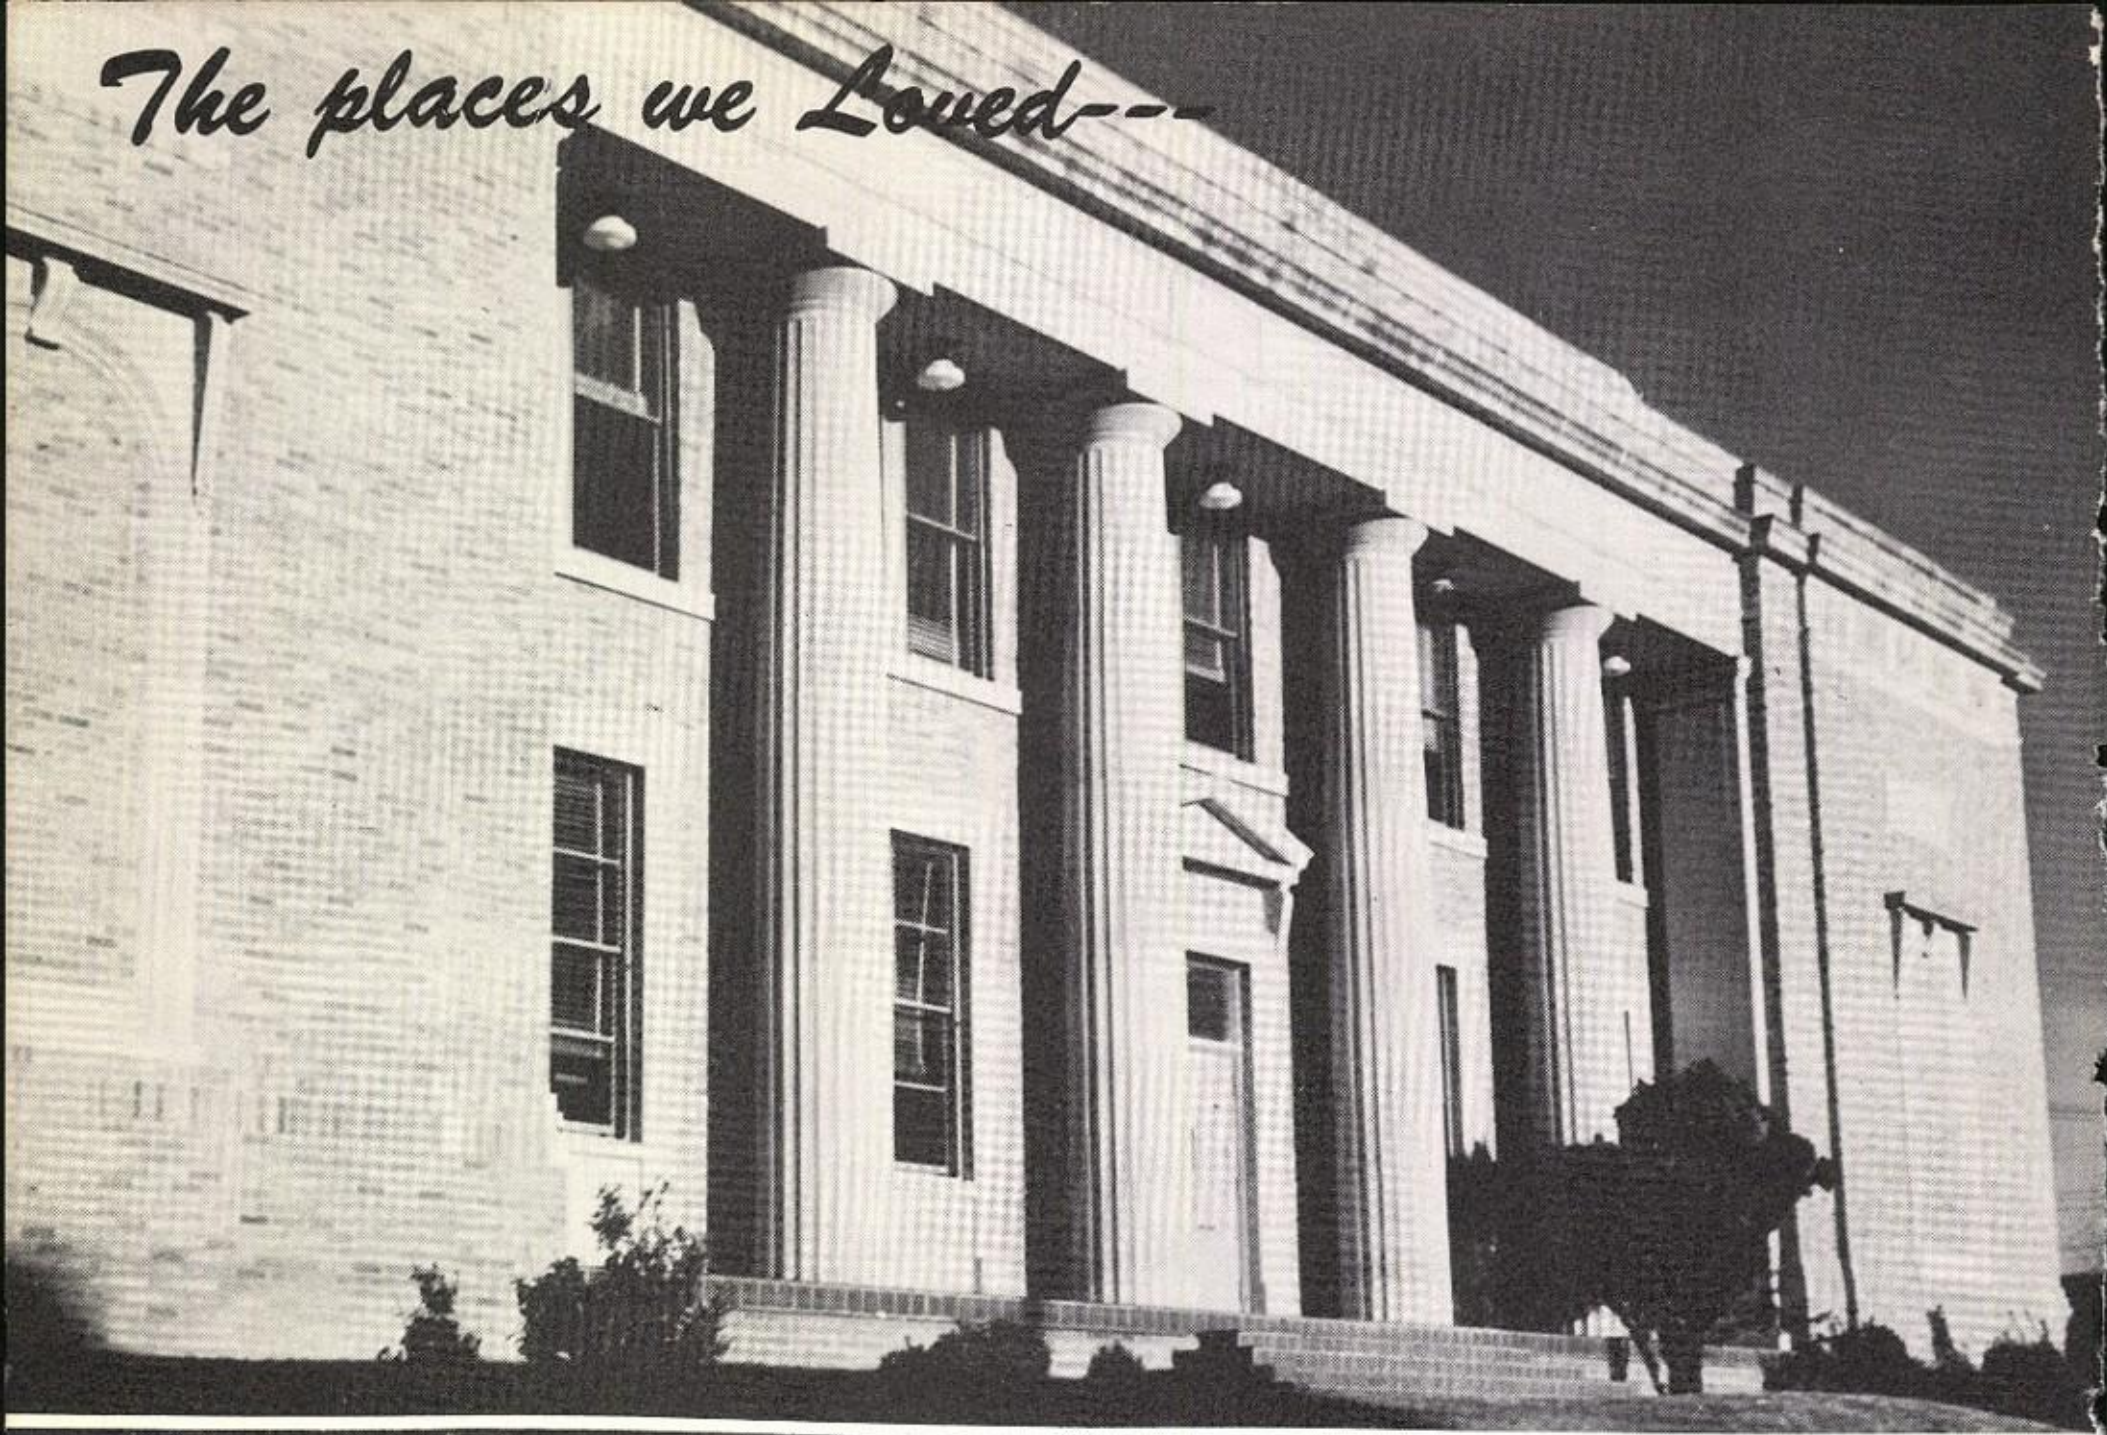

Those exciting moments ...

The memories we'll cherish ...

Those whom we thank ...

The places we Loved-- the office where we found ourselves so many times a day . . .

the library where we spent many of our hours . . .

our honeysuckle walk by the annex . . .

the water fountain we longed for during classes . . .

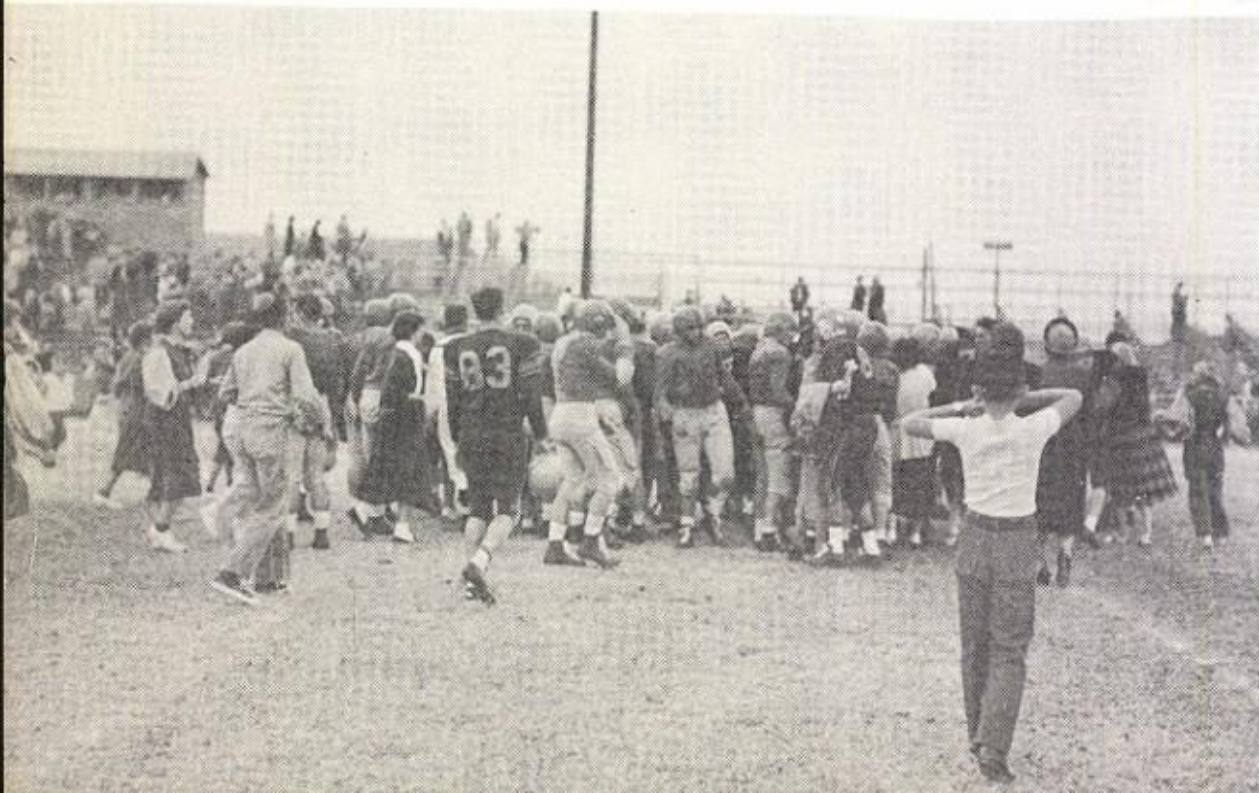

the girl's gym where we had so much of our fun . . .

the morning recess we looked forward to . . .

the confusion and fun in the cafeteria . . .

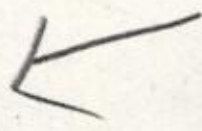

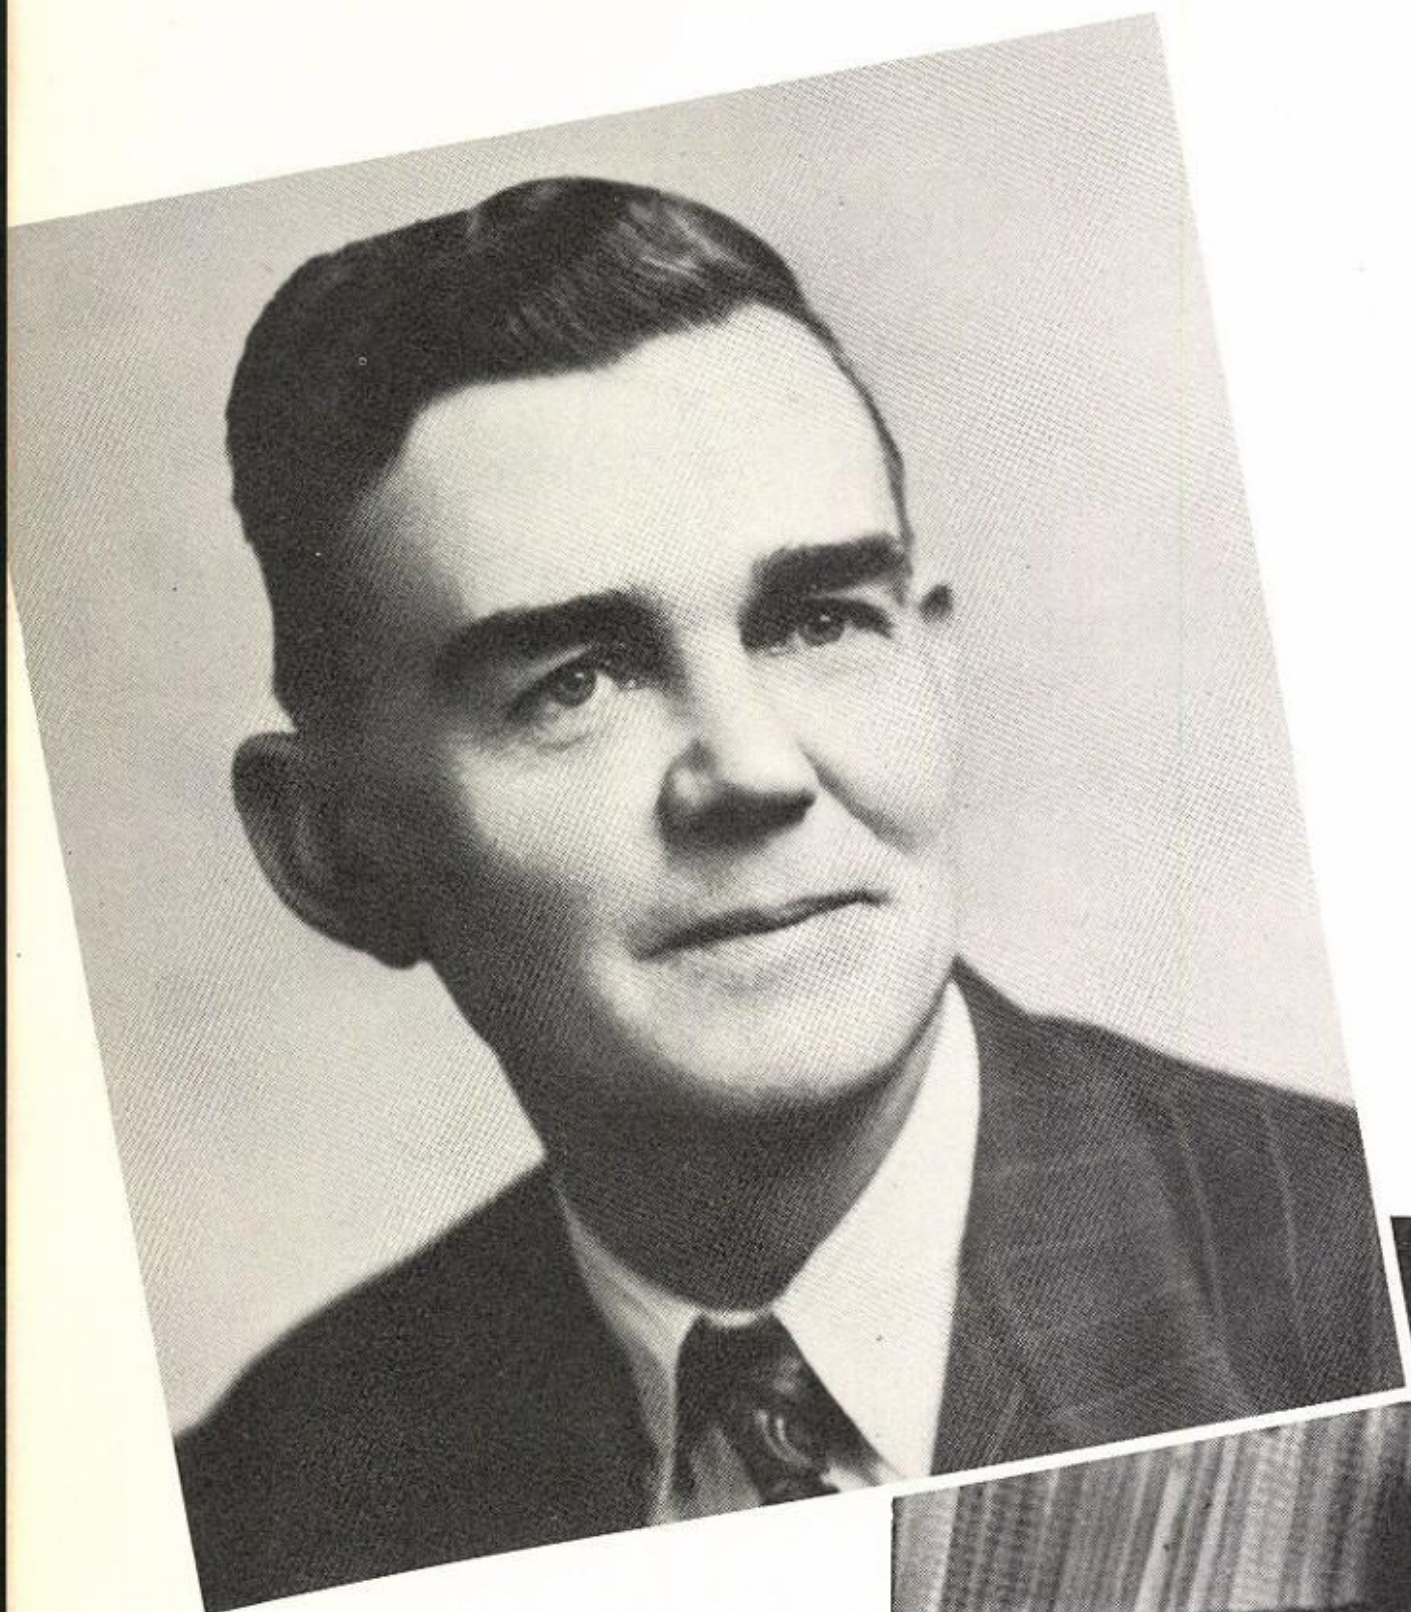

and Bobcat Stadium after a game.

Those who Guided us

Wanda Williams checks over her point cards in anticipation of her letter sweater.

Not 'Slinging Sammy', but our own chief custodian, Mr. J. T. Hunt—slingshot, bicycle, and all!

Sewing flurry commences as Mozell Rutledge, Barbara Ann Doss, and Noemi Michalik finish their dresses with Miss Epps assisting.

President Earnestine Woodward plans the agenda for the next Student Council meeting.

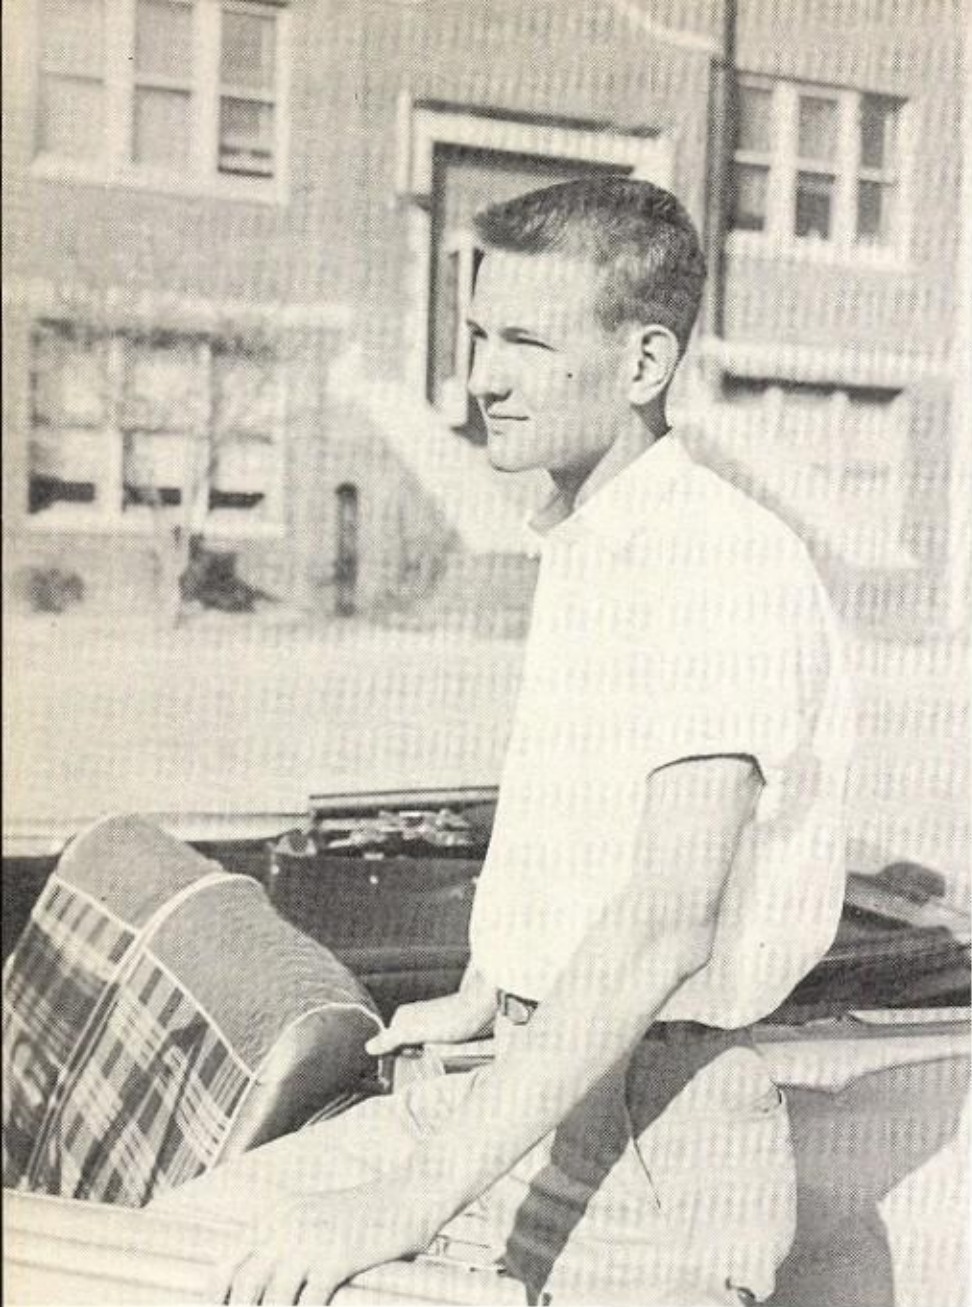

The Student Council mellerdrama was lustily cheered and hissed. (Sitting) Anne Edmond, Dawn Williams, and Ruth Phillips. (Standing) D. L. Shuffield, Danee Miller, Joe (curses) Connally, Paul Hudman, and Marilyn Smith.

Activities

The Civil Air Patrol Cadets is a group that serves as an organized unit in case of an emergency. It is composed of students who are taking a course in aeronautics, and who are interested in the activities of the organization. The activities of the year include actual flying as observers, military drill, and social functions such as initiation, picnics, and parties. The highlight of the year was the CAPC dance, held on January 25. Here the Belle and Beau of the CAPC were presented with the five duchesses.

A black and white photograph of a large group of young women, likely a school choir or glee club, posing in three rows. They are dressed in mid-20th-century attire, including blouses, skirts, and sweaters. The background is a dark, textured curtain. The group consists of approximately 25 women. The front row is standing, the middle row is seated or kneeling, and the back row is standing. They are all smiling and looking towards the camera.

Activities

Initiation party of the FHA was held on October 16, and the installation of officers followed on October 23. National Future Homemaker Week was observed November 4-10 by church, color day, courtesy day, and fund day through the week. District 4 and 5 of the Future Homemakers of America held its meeting in Sterling City on November 10. FHA dressed fifty dolls for the Salvation Army for Christmas. These were on display in the homemaking room before the holidays. A Christmas party was given for the exceptional children in the annex. "No Gripe Week" was observed January 14-18, any griper being fined five cents. Future Homemakers attended the Area II meeting in El Paso, had cake and all-occasion card sales, and were hostess for the Parent-Teacher Association Tea, March 24. The State FHA Meeting was in Dallas, April 24, 25, and 26. The year was brought to a close with an assembly program and a picnic for the FHA.

Installation of Latin Club officers was held on October 22. Through books, films, and research themes the club members studied the mythology, religion, dress, customs, literature, etc. of ancient Rome. Big plans were made for the third annual Latin Banquet, April 29. Members, as Roman citizens and slaves, all in ancient Roman dress, attended the affair. Before the Roman-style food and program began, the Lord's Prayer was said in Latin. "Pater noster, qui es in caelis—."

Reflecting the story of 1951-1952 in San Angelo High School was the duty of the Westerner staff. Their was the job of capturing the student body and faculty, clubs, and highlights of this year in pictures and copy in hopes that this annual will, in after years, keep those who have treaded the halls of SAHS together in memory.

After band practice—more music! Singing to the ukes are: (seated) Nita Anderson, Sue Jett, June Mints, Charlie Ditmore, Betts Lacey, Eddie Pace, and Edward Alley; (standing) Theresa Moore, Wanda Williams, Malinda Harwell, Shell Barth, Lemuel Miller, Gaither Paddock, Jimmy Gilmore, James Landers, and Arthur Thruston. Band camp was held during August on Dove Creek.

Eddie Keating keeps a check on Bobcat Band uniforms.

M. A. Browning of the Texas Education Agency speaks to high school part-time training students at their twelfth annual dinner. Roy Shelton was toastmaster for the banquet held in the San Angelo College dining room on March 27.

Activities

Joe Connally, Bobby Evans, and Dick Russell were sent as representatives from San Angelo to Amarillo for the purpose of writing a Sportsmanship Code for District 1-AAAA.

Howdy Week was sponsored from September 17-21. Friendliest Boy and Girl were elected and presented. A local workshop was held for the Council members on Saturday, September 22. Student Directories, mum corsages, and Bobcat pennants were sold by representatives. On October 20, the San Angelo High School Student Council was host to over 200 student delegates and sponsors for a one day meeting of the West Texas Forum of Student Councils.

The Council sent five delegates to the SASC convention in Shreveport, Louisiana, sent delegates to TASC in Corpus Christi, 15 delegates to a conference in Lubbock, and delegates to Midland for the West Texas Forum. During the first part of the semester a petition, which requested the attention of the Safety Council to the parking problems of the students, was circulated by Council members in the homerooms.

All assembly programs were presented by the Assembly Committee during the year.

The morning reading of the Scripture and the operation of the Lost and Found was done by the Student Council.

Twirp Season was declared for one week, January 7-12, and was climaxed by the Twirp Dance.

At the request of the Alta Loma Grade School principal, members of the council went to Alta Loma and spoke to each of the grades on what a student council is, and thus helped Alta Loma to organize a student council. The Student Council sponsored all elections, the faculty basketball game, and the melodrama. Orientation program for sophomores was planned and carried out by the Council.

* District 1-AAAA games

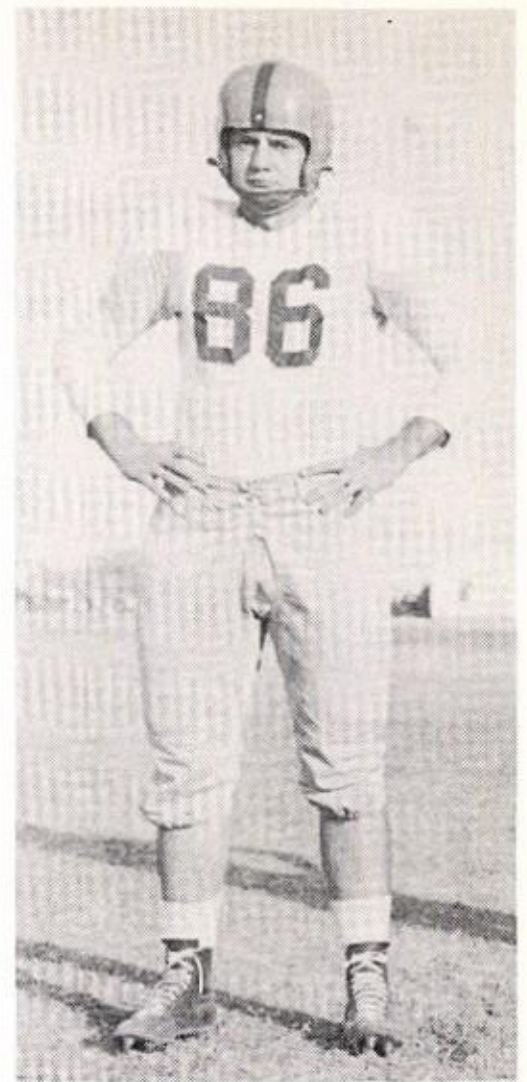

laying their initial season in District 1-AAAA—dubbed the "Little Southwest Conference"—the 1951 Bobcats faced the strongest teams in the state on successive weekends.

The squad had been depleted of experienced players by graduation, and Coaches Pete Sikes and Bill Hinson were forced to rely largely on sophomores and 1950 reserves. These Bobcats received a baptism of fire practically every Friday night—but they never threw in the sponge.

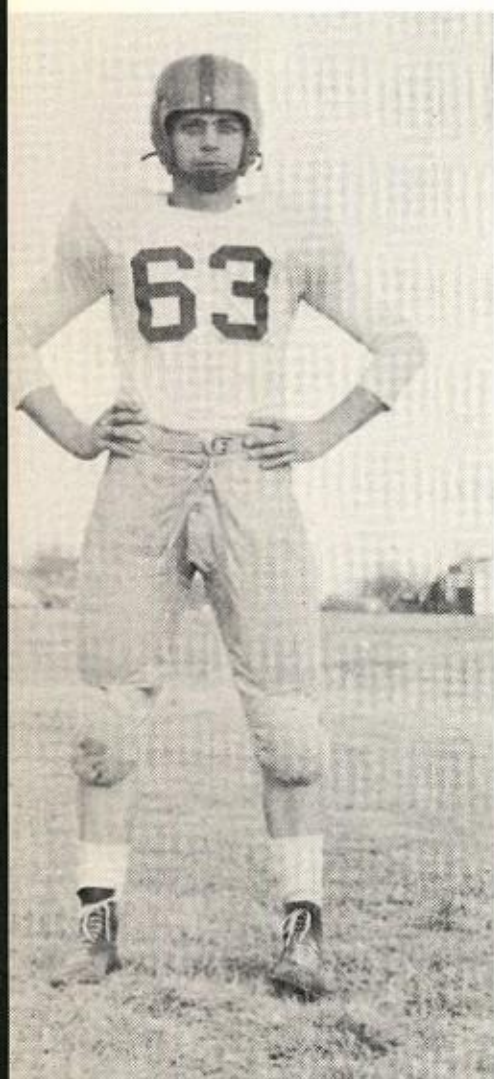

They'll be back next fall, with a year's experience behind them—and they'll be back to settle a few scores with their district neighbors.

The office is filled as Mrs. Maddux solves registration day problems for students. (center) Sandra Freeze and Beaty Findlater.

Miss Curry goes over new schedules with home room members Stella Bolding, D. L. Shuffield, Patsy Morrow, and Dorothy White.

Principal John Bishop congratulates student body president Earnestine Woodward at the introduction and installation of student body officers before assembly.

Cheer leader try outs were held before the Bobcat football season began. Senior girls leading yells are Margaret Smith, Barbara Sinclair, Beebe Bailey, Bettye Williams, Juanita Drake, Joan McMenamin, and Jack'e Reville.

Typical Footlighter Bob Fulmer, muttering "Ars gratia artis" under his breath, is an average pledge complete with onions and toothbrush.

Gayle Glass and Lynn Sturges are behaving as would-be-Footlighters should at initiation.

Loretta Young with a mouthful of raw egg is on the way to becoming a full fledged CAPC member.

A Saturday workshop started the Student Council off on another full-scheduled year. In one of the small group meetings are Marilyn Smith, Paul Hudman, Marilyn Abbott, and Harriett Parker.

Zocah Band broadcasts from the Youth Center. Across back are Bill Warrick, Bill Rodgers, Bo Linn, Don Mills, Bob Bunyard, and announcer Ed Alley.

A tense moment in a Bobcat football game has the Drill Squad on its feet, yelling.

One of the Drill Squad buses is being decorated with orange and blue streamers by Patsy Tyler for an out-of-town game.

Blazes mount with spirits at a pre-game bonfire in the Riverside Park.

Football programs are clutched tightly and excitement is in full swing in the student section of Bobcat Stadium.

Registration of visiting student council members for the West Texas Forum of Student Councils is conducted by Joanne Carr, Mary Munro, and Paul Hudman.

Time out for politicians is taken by Sandra Freeze and Beaty Findlater during the Forum of which San Angelo was the host school.

Madame King tells Buddy Sanders of his future at the Halloween Carnival in the Youth Center.

The Halloween Carnival is complete with apples for Bo Linn to duck for. In on the fun are Jetta Groff and Bob Fulmer.

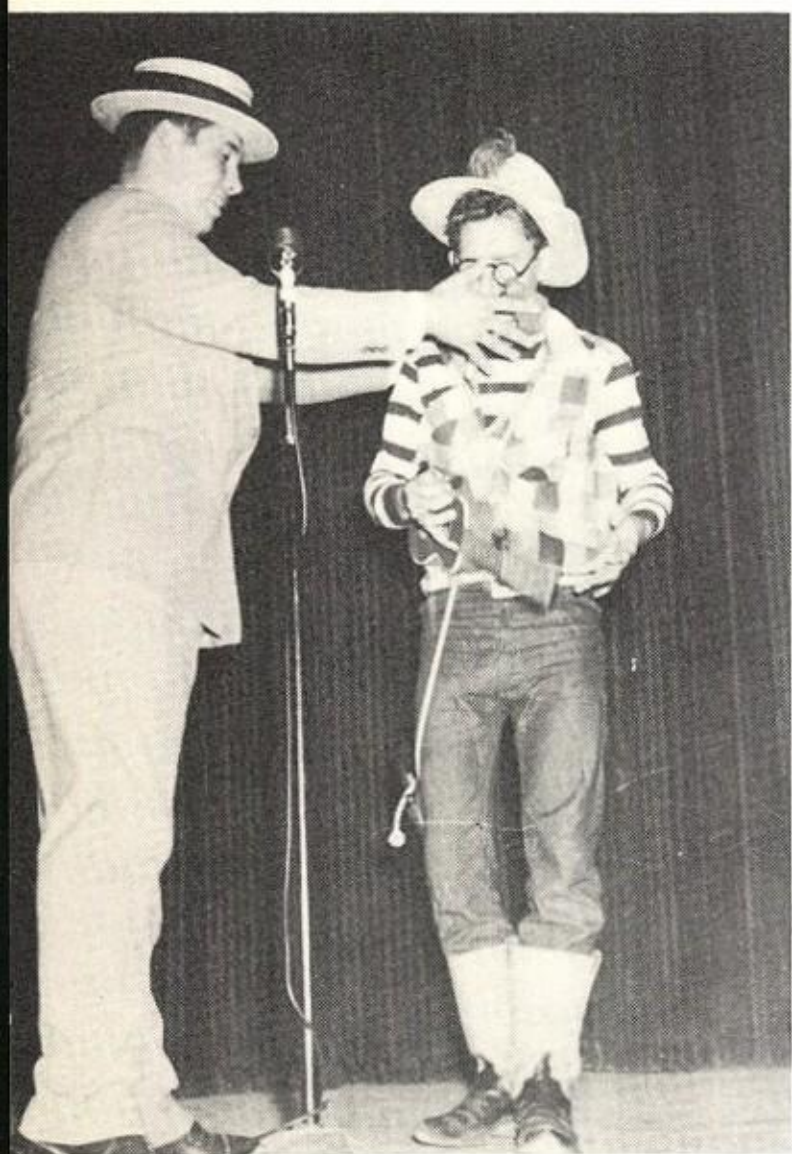

Yearly pose is struck for school pictures. Here Elaine Chandler waits. Even the stuffed Bobcat gets in on the act.

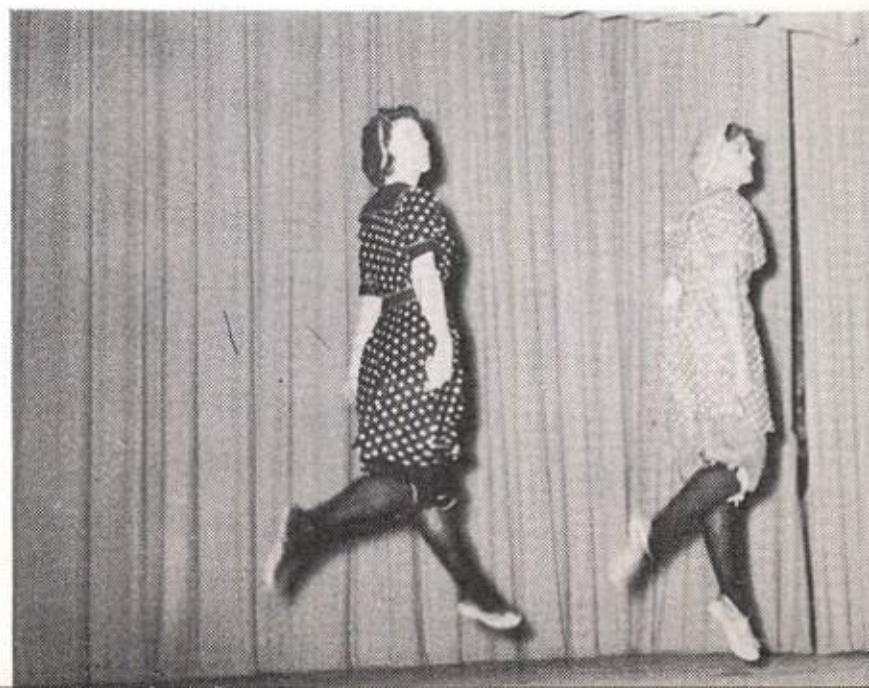

Waiting in line are Gail Shultz, Beulah Smith, Nancy LeMay, Carol Cottingham, Bill Cowart, Tommy Atnip, and Joe Wicker while Calvin Branham is "shot" by photographer Gene Addison.

Variety Show MC Don Dupree gives funny man Billy White a taste of pure fun himself. I thi-nkk!

The exchange assembly from Lubbock High School is complete with ole-time bathers in quite proper attire.

The Variety Show almost lost its MC, Don Dupree, while Maxita Fish sang atop the piano.

The oldest child prodigy appeared in the Variety Show —Edward Alley, naturally.

Evelyn Manitzas and D. L. Shuffield put their hearts into "How Could You Believe Me When I Told You That I Loved You When You Know I've Been a Liar all My Life?" in the Variety Show presented by the Glee Club.

Mrs. Eaton gives instructions at rehearsal for the Footlighter play, "The Nighth of January 16th," behind stage in the Municipal Auditorium.

Charlotte Shelby applies make up to "tough guy" Jim Syler just before curtain time.

All-important prompters for "The Night of January 16th" are Judy Johnson and Jenilee Tate.

Judge Kenneth Krizan raps for order during a high moment of the play. Clerk Kent Cummings holds exhibits for examination.

Little brother Billy Rodgers was awfully slow backstage, but he appeared anyway to help Bo Linn with "The Galvanized Wash Tub" in the talent show. They carried off first place.

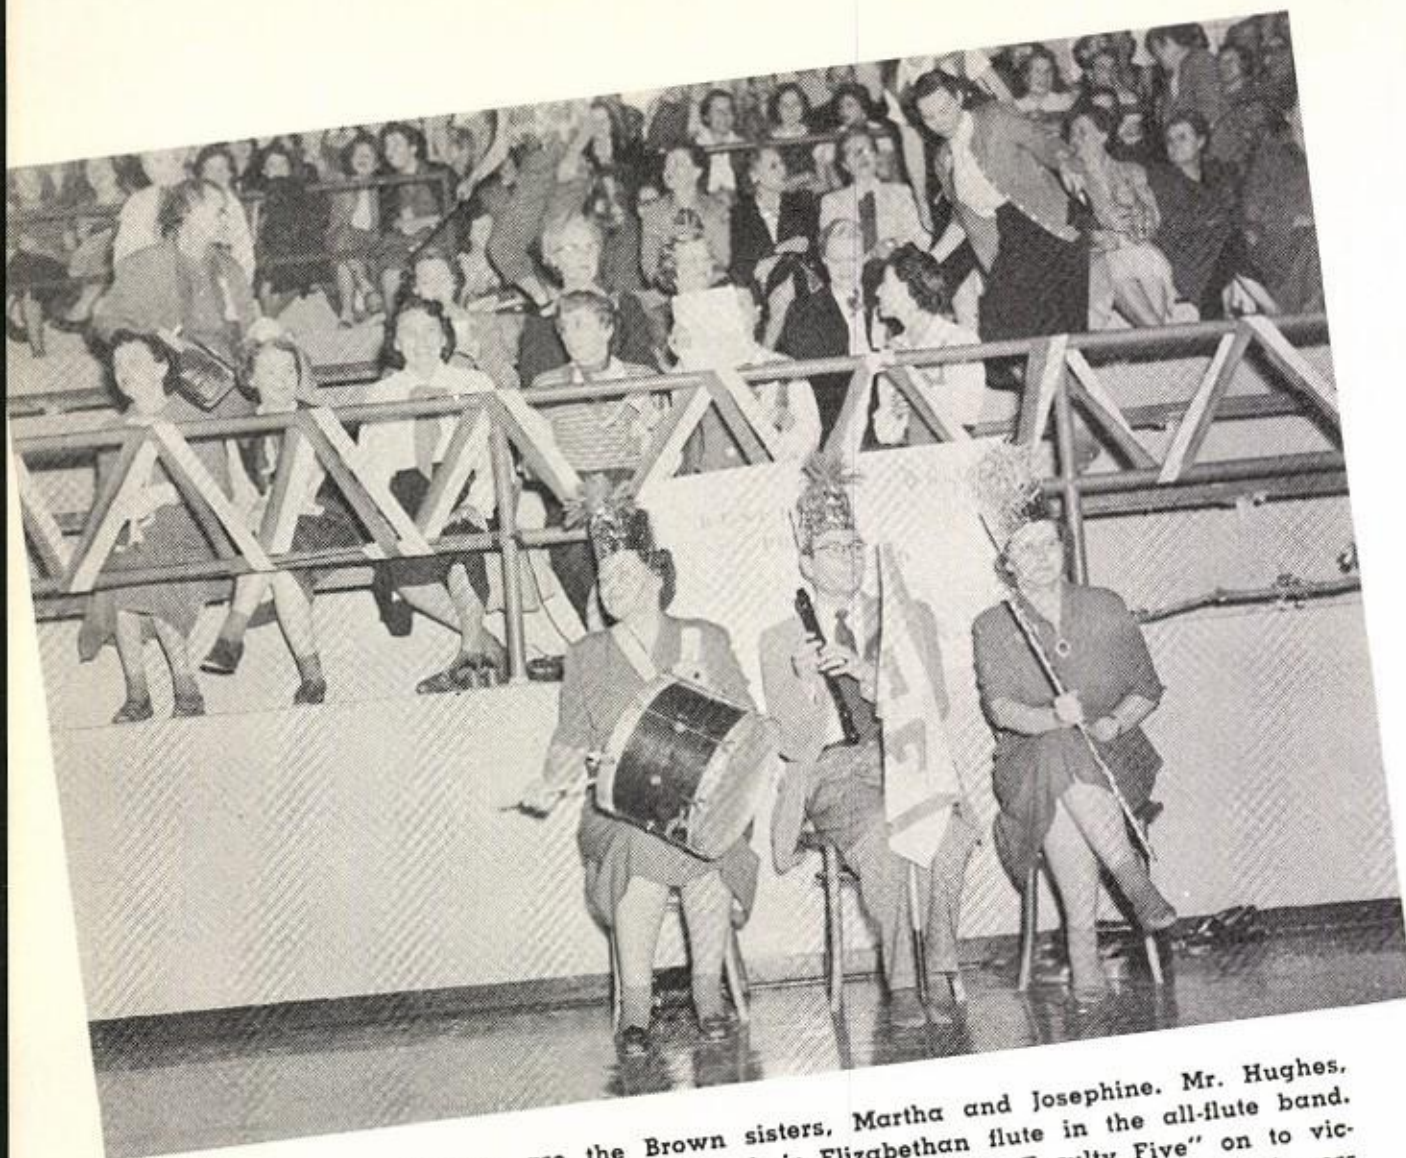

Bitsy-feet John Rutherford is unfazed as Frank Manitzas bellows "Chloe" from the floor.

Christmas in angles was displayed in a geometric Christmas tree during the holidays by the geometry classes.

Mr. Wooley's home room 308 headed a drive to collect food, toys, and clothing from home rooms for San Angelo's needy. The machine shop repaired tricycles and all were displayed in the main hall.

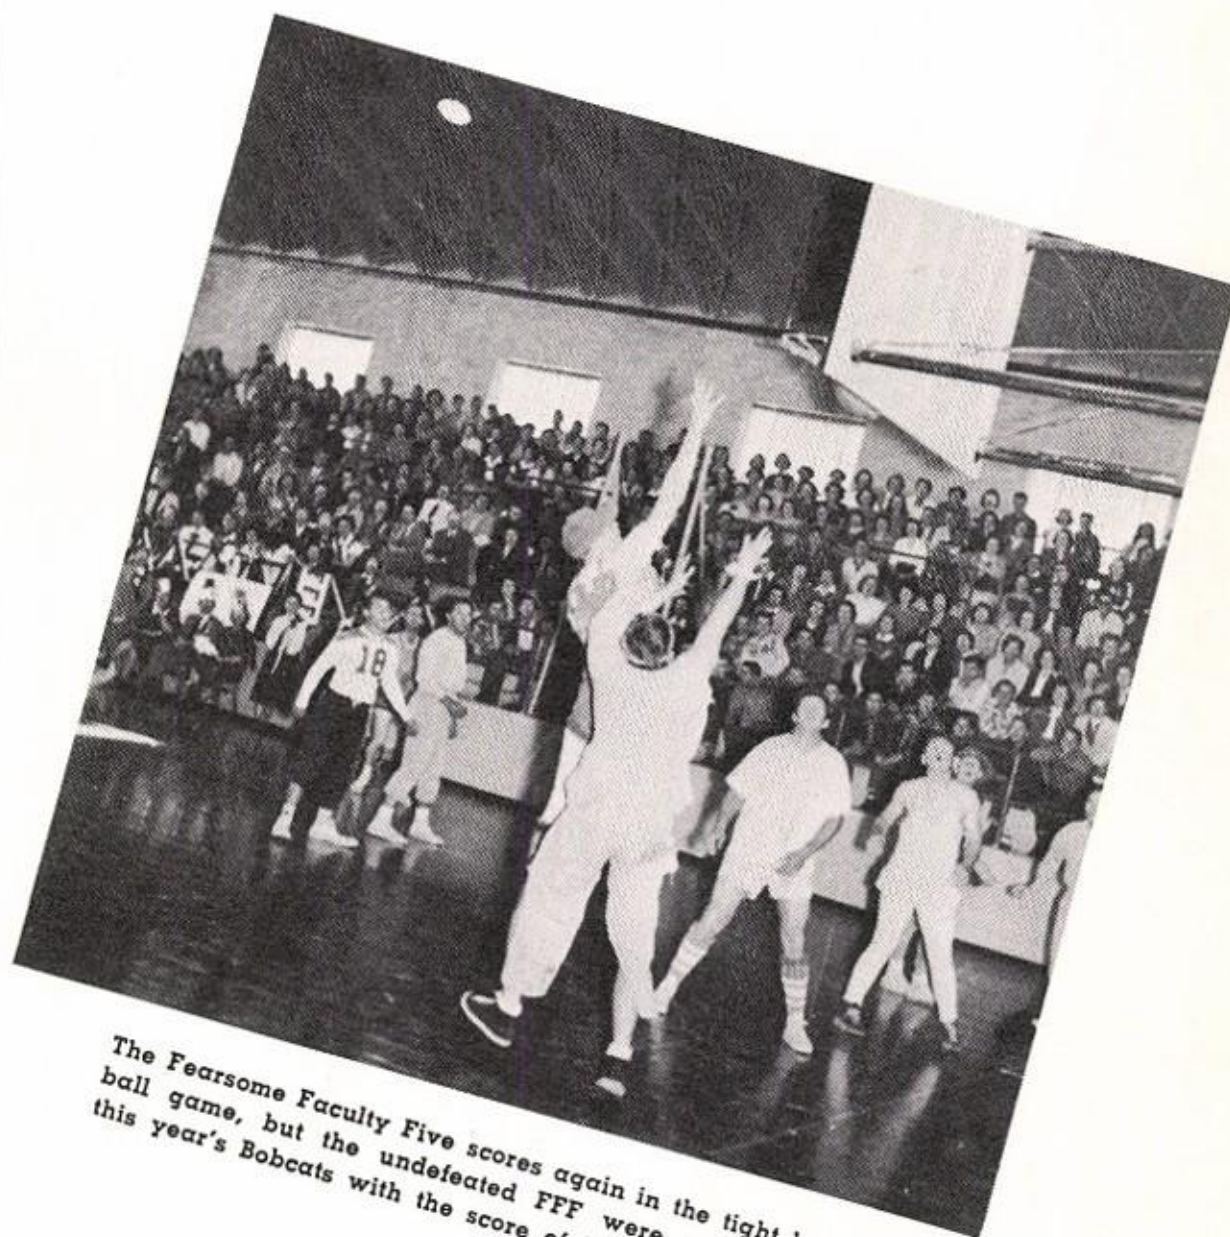

Those Twin Twirlers are the Brown sisters, Martha and Josephine. Mr. Hughes, with flag and stocking feet, is first chair Elizabethan flute in the all-flute band. The teachers sit in their section to cheer the "Fearsome Faculty Five" on to victory. Miss Jessie Stapp, FFF Sweetheart, was presented with a crown and flowers at the half time.

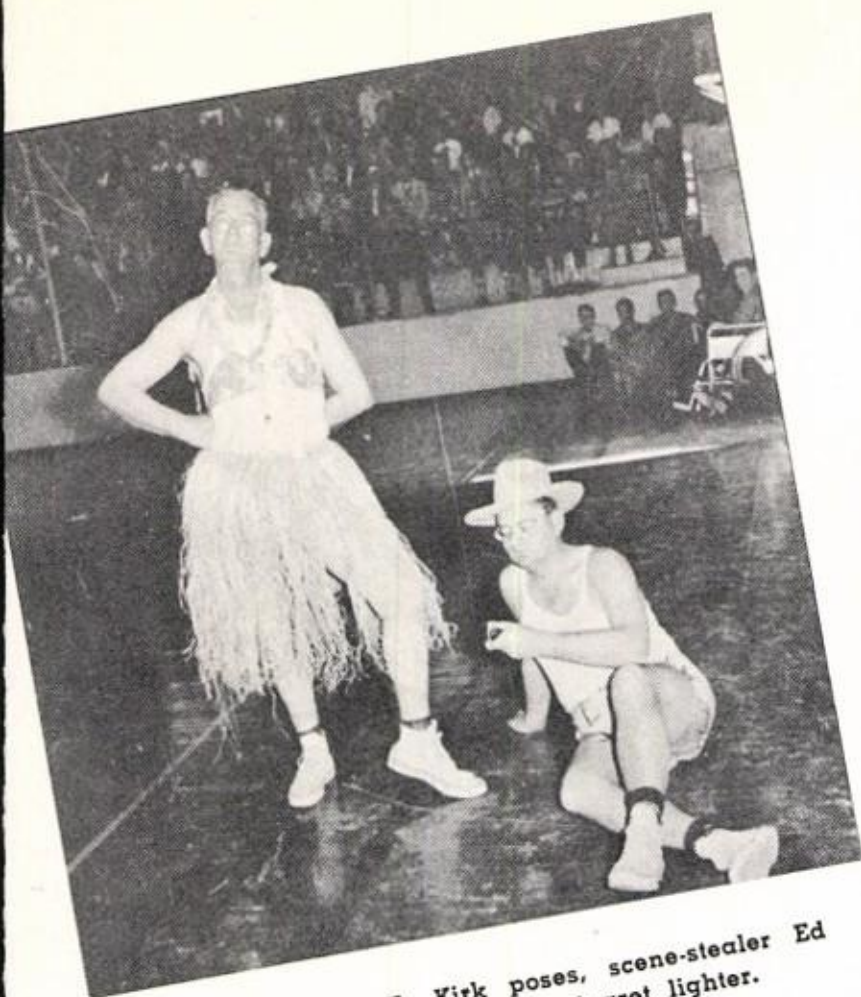

Eggy, eggy, nog, nog, nog!
Peddy, peddy, gog, gog, gog!

FACULTY SONG

Our toss is like the cyclone.
Our bounce is like the storm.
Our team it is the bravest
That e're the sun shone on.
That e're the sun shone on.
And true to them we'll be,
And for scoring peddy goggies
We'll lay us doon and de.

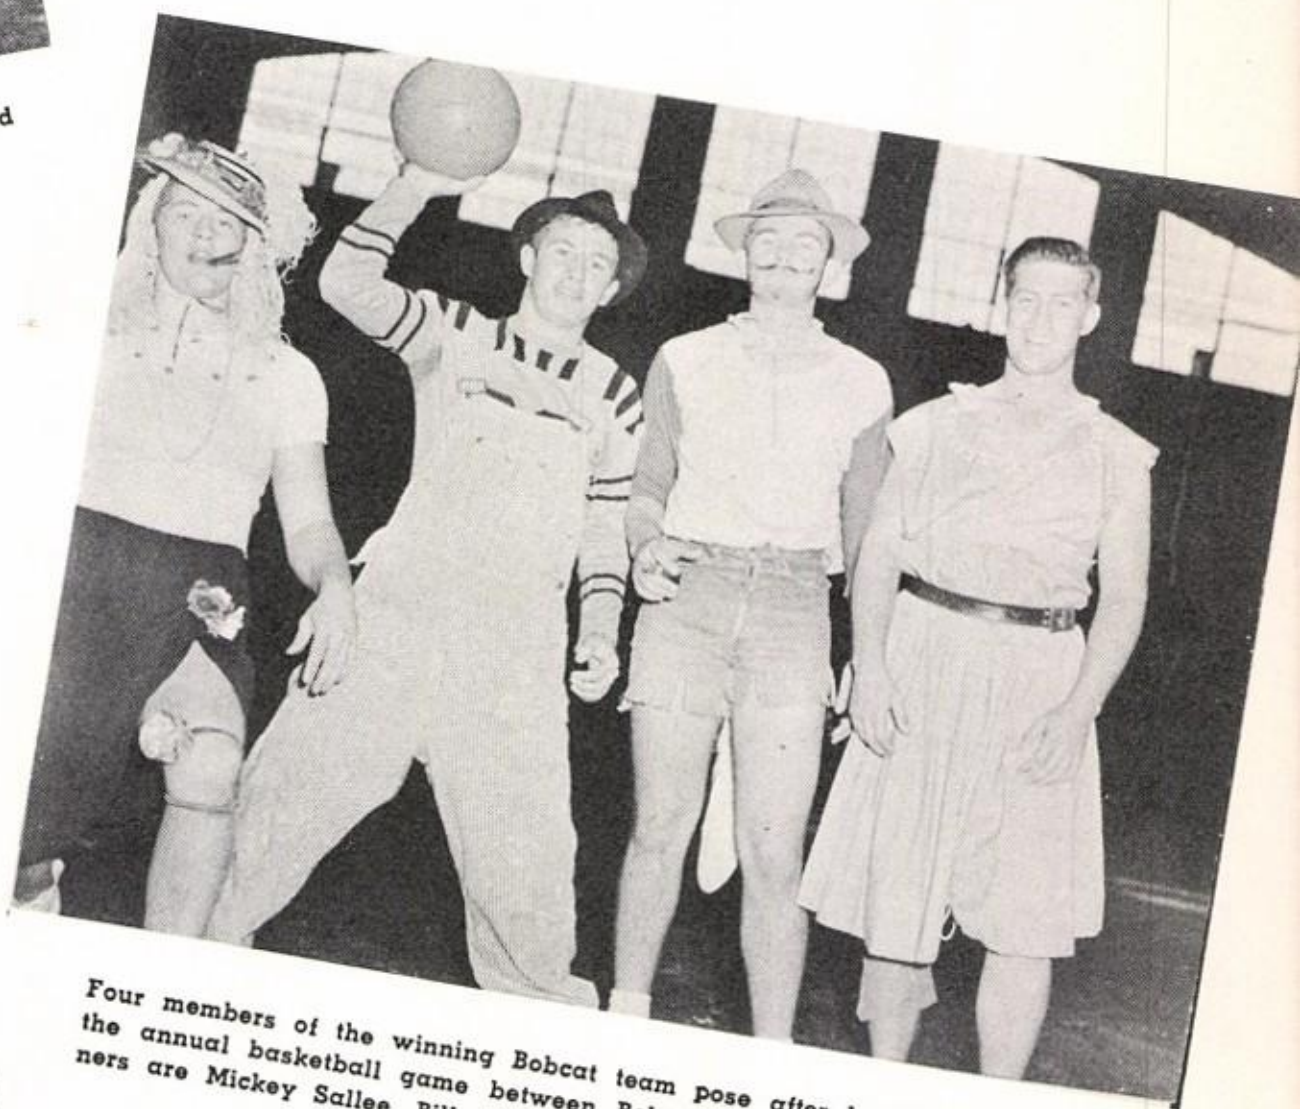

The Fearsome Faculty Five scores again in the tight basketball game, but the undefeated FFF were submerged by this year's Bobcats with the score of 10 to 7.

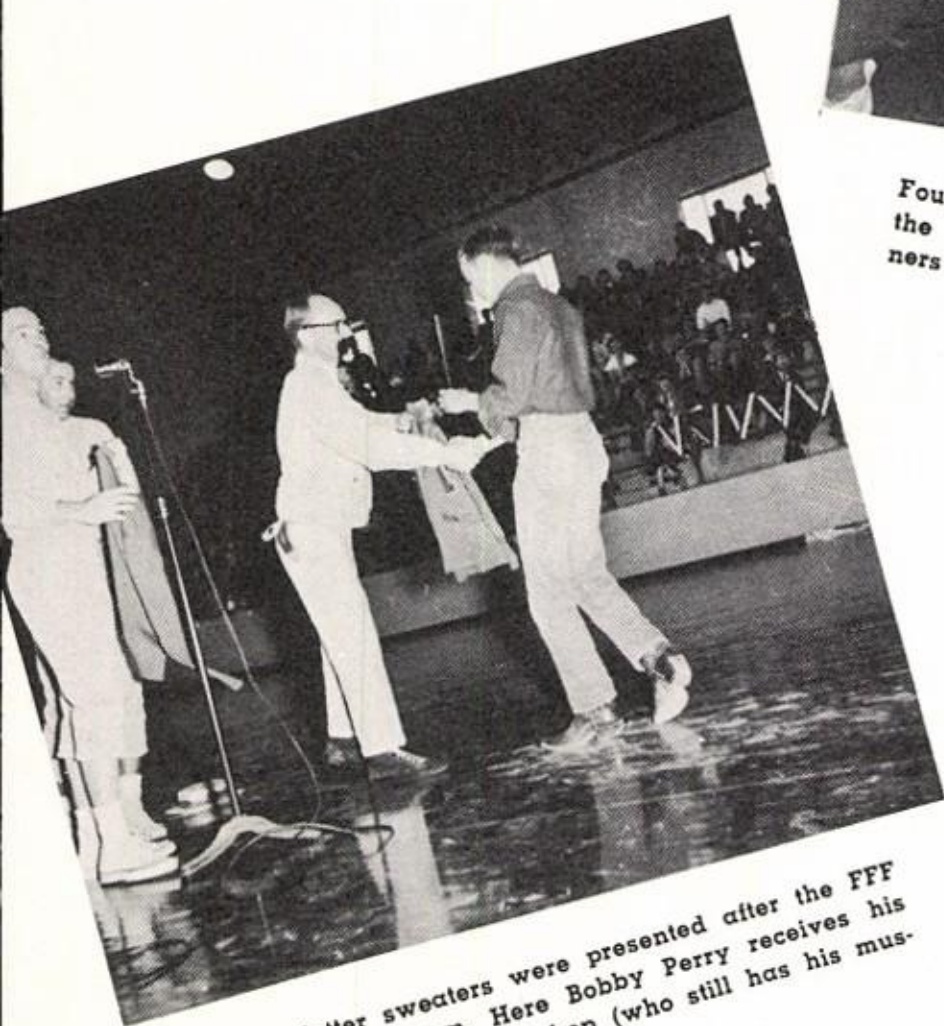

As referee B. F. Kirk poses, scene-stealer Ed Nunnally is busy with his cigaret lighter.

Dribble high; dribble low.
Crowd in, crowd in, hit 'em a blow.

Yeah team, yeah team!
Grab that ball! Hit that beam!

Four members of the winning Bobcat team pose after beating the FFF in the annual basketball game between Bobcats and faculty. Haughty winners are Mickey Sallee, Billy Rogers, Jimmy Clatterbuck, and Jack Minica.

Kitten letter sweaters were presented after the FFF game in the gym. Here Bobby Perry receives his jacket from Principal Bishop (who still has his mus-tache on).

Faculty Five! Faculty Five!
Bite those Bobcats! Eat 'em alive!

Jimmy Morgan was the winner of the most artistic corsage at the Twirp Dance sponsored by the Student Council. Jimmy's corsage was made by Judy Moritz.

Twirp (the woman is requested to pay) Week, climaxed by the Twirp Dance, has become an annual high school affair. In the foreground are Gayle Franks and Jean Capshaw.

A revolting dummy in the show room where the dance was held represented a typical San Angelo High School Twirp.

Senior class president Duane McCullough standing before the rocket background gives the welcoming address to start the 1952 Senior Banquet. Seated are Senior class vice-president Eddie Pullman and guest speaker, The Rev. Morris Elliott of Emmanuel Episcopal Church in San Angelo.

The Senior Banquet, centered around a rocket 'future' theme, was held in the Crystal Ballroom of Hotel Cactus.

Fiddling around as concert time draws near are (in foreground): Linda Ragland, Anita Anderson, Sherry Gray, Danee Miller, and Martha McMillan.

Homer Anderson works out publicity in preparation for the annual band and orchestra concert.

Cheerleaders Virginia Daniel, Sharon Burton, Maxine Graham, and Bettie Williams lead the student body in a yell after receiving their new cheerleader jackets.

Excitement climbs in the senior play as Joan Sellers reads the will to Jimmy Campbell, Joyce Murphy, and June Mints, which bequeathes a ghost.

Joyce Murphey tries to catch some sleep between ghostly visits, but Edward Alley and Billy Hillyer firmly believe a straight jacket is the better solution to this problem.

Favorites for 1952 get together to look through annuals, seeing how they will be pictured in the favorite section. Seated are Joan Sellers, Margaret Smith, Margay Woodward, Marilyn Abbott; standing are Lon Slaughter, Eddie Pullman, Vayden Stanley, Bobby Harris, and Duane McCullough.

First effects of arsenic show on Vernon Taylor while Charles Greenwall remains calm.

A breath is taken between Prom dances by Sally Rau, Bernard McIntosh, Stella Bolding, and Paul English in the hotel lobby.

Bring 'em back dead—Curtiss Feuge.

Thoughtful mood that Margaret Smith is in just causes Eddie Pullman to laugh.

School's out . . . so long—Margaret White, Dane Miller, and Dawn Williams.

Celebrating Porter Henderson's and Bill Warrick's birthdays are Buzz Mills, Arlan Fenner, Eddie Pullman, Bill Warrick, Porter Henderson, Delvis Guess, Howard Richards, Bill Rodgers, Delnor Poss, Jimmy Reed, Sam Crowther, and Hal Dickson.

Challes Moser and Marilyn McManus are wrought up over this issue.

Miss Poteet explains while the honey lambs along the wall listen —Don Pitman, Donald Edwards, Don Robertson.

Obviously bored are Fidela Guajardo, Alfonso Hernandez, and Ida Martinez.

Betty Price is caught doing an unheard-of-thing at a slumber party.

Nancy Lane in her new-model convertible.

Janet Turner and Sistie Robin made that corner just a little fast.

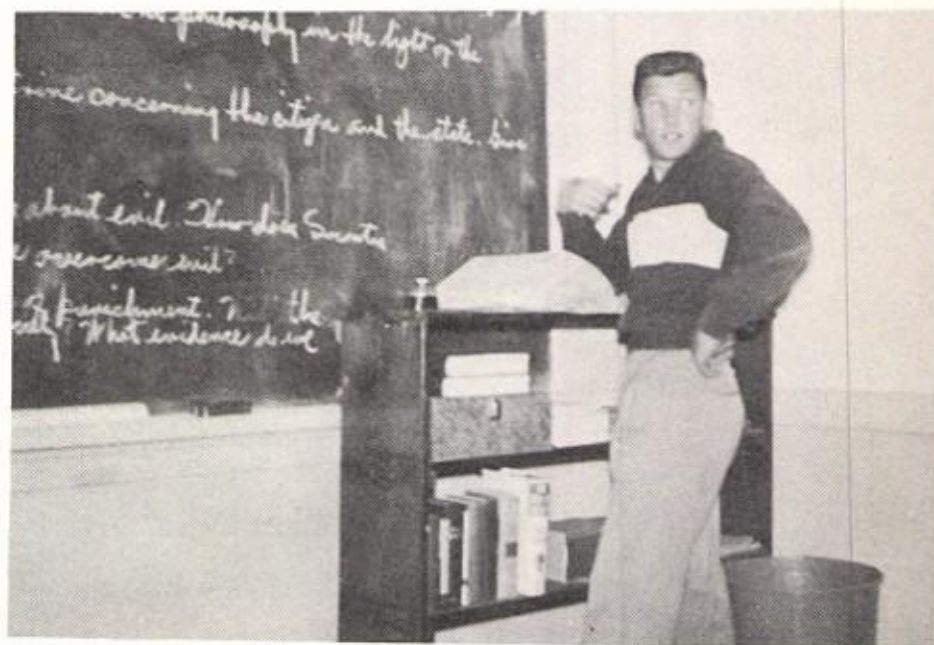

Mozelle Rutledge, Juanita Drake, Billy Carl Shuffield, Eddie Pullman, and Beebe Bailey take to the wide open spaces.

L. B. Baca entertaining lofty thoughts.

That's okay with Judy Johnson.

Now what was that ole word?—Charles Koberg.

Why little children shouldn't wander into woods!

There still seems to be a bashful one left around SAHS—Marilyn Jackson.

Connie's Cadillac is 'nuff background for Connie Edwards, Clyde Grossenbacher, and Charles Koberg.

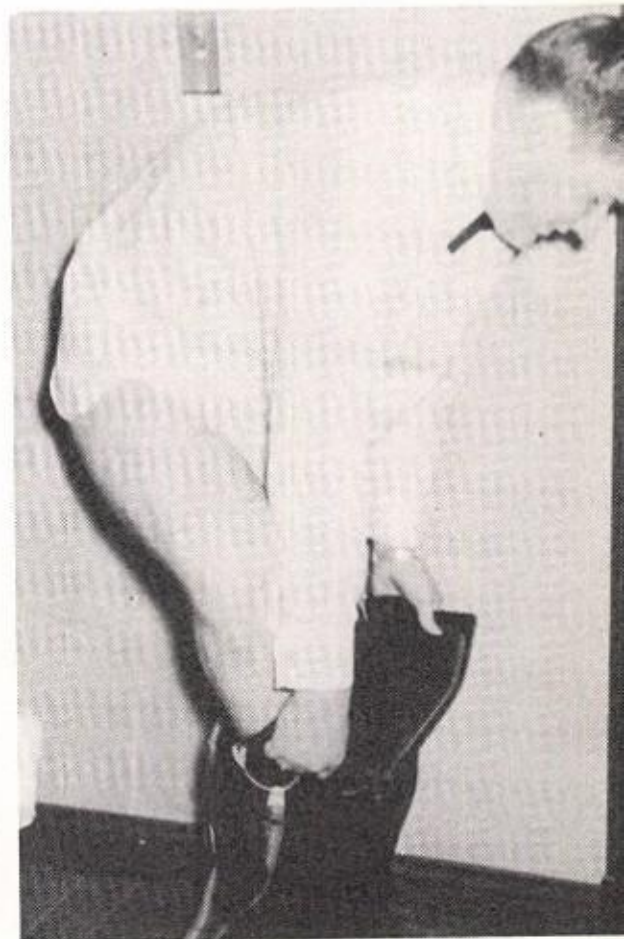

Helen Morrison, Patsy Tyler, and Challes Moser clamber aboard the packed Drill Squad bus.

Eddie Pace is ready to 'fall in'.

George Manitzas meets Bob Hope and Marilyn Maxwell during their appearance in San Angelo.

A full day on the All-State Orchestral trip is ended by Edward Alley.

Too good to miss! Curtis Feuge claims open season on buffalo. (Note buffalo with the Monday morning school day look.)

The night of May 23, 1972, the Senior Class of 1952 at San Angelo High School held a reunion in the famous Planetoid Room of the Hotel Astra in Luna City, the Moon. Those not able to be present sent information as to their whereabouts and occupation. Seen there were the following:

Just back from an interplanetary tour is "Rocket" Ed Alley and his five Navigators — Arthur Thruston, Crayton Bryd, Billy Hillyer, Billy Wood, and James Landers. On the tour they introduced the new hit song "The Little Black Meteor That Fell." Feature attraction of the Navigators is the dribbling duo composed of Valentino Warricko and Rendezvous Reed, who reportedly wore out their suede space shoes jitterbugging on the nine planets. They have commissioned Wendell Williams to fit them for some more.

Robert Castor and "Disappearing" Northcutt are partners in the Universal News, leading newspaper on Venus.

Jane and June Rodgers are a team now devoting their genius to nursery rhymes. Their most favored poem is: Humpty Dumpty stepped on the gas, Around a truck he tried to pass, But Humpty Dumpty didn't croak, You see, he had a "Hard Boiled Yolk."

Janet Kohutek is head of the first aerial advertising in the solar system. At present she is engaged in law suits with a number of farmers because her floating billboards prevent rain from falling in some section of the world. Among the plaintiffs are: Erwin Schwartz, Emil Jost, and Franklin Plagens.

Finus Branham is commercializing the Milky Way to obtain high grade milk necessary for infants. His best customers are Sistie Robinson De Berry, Carolyn O'Barr Browder, Danny Wallace Arrott, her sister-in-law Frankie Pearson Arrott, Lou Nell Smith Callison, Geneva Nichols Hartman, and Kathilene Maresh Taylor.

Eddie Pullman is the idol of the younger generation, for he has perfected a combination candy and soap bar. His slogan is "Don't be a dope, eat Pullman's Vitamin Soap."

Mike Horwitz, successor to Einstein, has developed his new theory of conformity. In a statement to a recent conference led by June Mints and Joanne Carr, Professor Horwitz revealed Anne Edmond to be "the girl I'd most like to be locked in a satchel with."

After receiving her master's degree in physics, Joyce Kirkham returned to SAHS to teach Mr. Wooley the fundamentals.

Warren Wolf, the famous astronomer, was still in bandages covering wounds received when his new telescope collapsed. At the time of the accident he was window-peeping on a slumber party given by Earnestine Woodward and Joan Sellers. Also diverting the intentions of our great scientists by deliberately leaving their shades up were Su-Su Harris, Pat Powers, Helen Elder, and June Turner.

Paul Hudman received the degree of Doctor of Jerks from A&M and is the inventor of rubber teeth. His advertising slogan is "Use Hudman's Rubber Teeth and Always Have a Snappy Comeback."

Joan Barnett, Martha Bolen, Velma Green, Ann Gary, Elizabeth Balantine, Janet Cummings, Patsy Collier, Sandra Carter, Mary Cahill, and Patsy Arnwine are directing the atomic typewriters from their bosses' laps.

Adelbert Hodges, after getting his Ph.D from Yale, is teaching solid geometry at the University of Saturn.

Rose Marie Nason and Dorthy Kelley have founded a famous girl's resort; Camp She-She for girls from 6 to 60.

Also injured recently was Porter Henderson, who received several lacerations in the vicinity of his nose when a plastic bubble vigorously exercised by Cecil Anne Cunningham, famous Bubble Dancer, accidentally exploded. Also believed to be injured by flying plastic was "Snake" Mills, who was last seen wriggling his way to a table through the crowd. Requiescat in pace!

Charles Morgan is traveling with Circling Brothers Circus and is billed as the Universe's Tallest Midget.

Recently returned from a trip South of the Big Dipper at Space "Stockades" are Wayne Evans and Junior Cull.

Doris June Prine and Barbara Ann Doss collaborated on producing the thesis "Silence and Why it Cannot be Heard." This scientific achievement has brought fame to both.

Billy Rodgers was reported lost in space near Mars after he made a desperate lunge for the pants of his denim space suit. Leading the search for Rodgers are the CAPC (Civil Asteroids Pants Captivators) headed by Jackie Reville. Aiding in the search are Bill Cupp, Janelle Guthals, Anne Hamilton, Barbara Harry, Betty Hrcir, Don Mills, James Motl, Billy Warrington, and Sandra Weaver.

Arlan Fenner, Bob Humphrey, Thumbs Gunter, and Tom "Blue" Beard have just returned from camping at Walsenburg on the "Colorado" Moon of Jupiter.

Joyce Melton took time off from her studying at SAHS where she is running the Corral and majoring in civics to attend the party.

Evelyn Manitzas Shuffield is still trying to figure out how she could believe him when she knows he's been a liar all his good-for-nothing life.

Establishing a rodeo club on Uranus were Grady Arrott, Ted Butts, and James Hill.

Next door on Pluto is the Berger's Farmer's Colony established by Eugene Berger. His partners in this seedy deal are Ralph Crouch, Milton Edwards, Don Wilson, Jack Byrd, and Dennis Jezek.

During the intermission, while the navigators rested, class talent was displayed. The famous Can Can line of the Planetoid Hotel presented part of the floor show. Included in the line were Wilma Ripple, Alice Bishop, Lulie Young, and Darlene Williams. Also, the All-Planetary Choir sang. Some of the members of the 1952 class of SAHS singing in the choir were Paula Dye, Ethel Ann Gray, Ruby Lee King, B. J. Windmiller, and Marlene Tedford. Entertaining the guests with a Mexican "glove" dance were Alfonso Hernandez and Ramon Losoya. Ida Martinez accompanied them on the Jew's Harp.

The big news is the new cosmic bomb, developed by Glenn Buell. His assistants were Jack Ryan, Horace Belote, Gene Beard, Billy Helbert, and Dean Berry.

Patty Sue Birch has won great fame over TV as a mistress of ceremonies on the Schmaltz Bunion Cure Program, better known as the puffed feet hour.

Theresa Moore, Malinda Harwell, and Wanda Williams originated the Fife and Drum Auxiliary Corps to the Space Rangers.

Delnor Poss is owner of the professional girls basketball team, the Planet Trotters, who put on an exhibition for the party. Their managers are Ronnie Campbell and Horace Wilson. Included on the team are: Janet Blanton, Charla Bryan, Norma Clark, Grace Collins, and Madine Gooding.

The hit movie of the year is "Cyrano de Crowtherac" starring Sam Crowther as Cyrano, who displays rare natural ability for the part! His leading lady is Martha McMillan.

Elected "best dressed man forevermore" was Jimmy Campbell. His grand entrance to yesterday evening's reunion was marred when he realized L. B. Baca and Martha Brickey were sporting red polka dot suspenders identical to his. Giving an impromptu pep talk for A&M was George Manitzas. He is still trying to put over the Aggie story.

Curtiss Feuge has become the Universe's foremost authority on women's hair styles. His book "The Therapeutic Value of the Permanent Wave on the Physic Being" is a classic as such.

Back on the earth in Texas, Laura Amaker, Duckey Barnes, Dottie Cherry, Susan Sproule, and Paula Hawkins are running the famous ABC Ranch for discriminating dudes. Residents there in recent months are Bettie Williams, Lelia Drake, Beebe Bailey, and Margaret Smith.

Bobby Cummings, Duwain Durham, Roy Bryant, and Charles Regan teamed together to teach their huge herd of pigs to smoke corn cob pipes. They are the first in history to market real "fresh smoked ham."

Erwin Schmidt's plans for improving the building and grounds of Joyce Murphey's School for Girls located on Jupiter were approved by Marilyn Smith, the assistant dean.

Robby Hargraves is keeping books on the flying saucer races. He is losing steadily to Larry Hendrickson, who seems to have the dope straight from the saucers.

Prophecy

Thomas Earnest is selling automatic back scratchers from back to back.

Virginia LaMance and Nova Lail have just completed their great composition "Sonata in K" or "The Cat's Meow." It is to be introduced in Barnagie Hall next week by Richard Uhericks Loony Orchestra.

Clyde R. Grossenbacher Esq., the famous big dame hunter, was absent due to having to serve time in the space prisons of Ganymede for running "Martian Dew" across the space lines to a dry planet. Jimmy Carter, captain of the Space Rangers, and his assistant, "Squatter" Vaughan, apprehended Rudolph after a wild chase over three planets. Judge Billy Riggs tried and convicted the prisoner.

Charles Koberg, financial dictator of four planets, has written a new book pertaining to girls entitled Macbeth or "They look like the innocent flow'r, but be the serpent under it."

Roy and Ray Shelton are famous throughout the universe for their gigantic haberdashery—Shelton Bros. Their salesman with the brightest future is Mr. Dick Callison.

Lou Ann Sims autographed tennis balls for her admirers, with her partner Betts Lacy assisting.

Jack Minica, head coach at Kiss Me U situated on Pluto, is heartbroken; one of his players didn't make All-Plutarian.

Don McLaughlin, president of the local chapter of Alcoholics Anonymous, has opened a new liquor store. Victor Salter was toastmaster at the opening ceremonies and escorted the "Queen of the Universe," Juanita Drake.

Billy Wood is now teaching a class in etiquette for all who yearn to eat like a slob, but correctly.

Billie Harmes has just published her latest pamphlet—"Eat and Grow Skinny."

Barbara "Monster" Sinclair has developed the new Home Gym Super Power Tool designed to make all short boys taller than she.

James Young is head chef at Camp Pitchumwoo for Boy Scouts. The camp situated next door to Pitchumwoo is Camp Catchumwoo for under privileged old maids, run by Virginia Wright.

"Hot Jets" Lace has devised a new method of propulsion. He used dried possums, his brothers, for fuel.

Jimmy Teague, who has earned the title of "Universe's Most Perfectly Undeveloped Man" has been on Mars holding a correspondence course in muscle building.

Sally Jo Garvis is rich from her risque cartoons in Esquire. Writing the story to accompany Sally's cartoons is Anita Hoelscher.

Betty Jo Roberts and Joan McDonald decided to end it all and used a rented time machine to return to their high school days. The latest word is that they plan to stay in SAHS and major in navigation and home economics.

Joyce Venable and Delores Latham are traveling the universe demonstrating Lax Mackter Make-up. Their best customer is Mrs. Ruth Whitaker.

Luke Wilson has invented an automatic leg-puller for humorous people.

Carol Lane has had all front seats (by the window) reserved on all space ships leaving for Spartan City where a certain roughneck is working at present.

After making a trip round the moon in record time on a pogo stick, Agnes Jost is looking onward to greater achievements.

Rockie Jim Syler just made it back to Luna City for the reunion in time. He has been serving time for breaking too many females' hearts.

Mary Katherine Fuentes is now one of the Belles of St. Mary's.

Betty Alderman attended the party on the arm of her husband, manager of the Planetoid Hotel.

Joe Wallace and Jimmy White finally proved that Euclid was off his rocker when he originated geometry. By a series of logical steps in higher mathematics, they have reached the conclusion that geometry doesn't exist, as such; now they are the idols of the high school kids.

Bill Dyches keeps his own private barber, Douglas Stahl, on Mars, because Doug is the best known authority on shaving heads.

Duane McCullough, president of I. B. C. (Interplanetary Bachelors Club), suffered a slight sprain of the sacroiliac during the course of a dance with "Triple Jointed" Rutledge. Dr. Howard Richards, noted local physician, was called from studies of the Horwitz Theory to attend Mr. McCullough.

Earl Pierce, the famous Narrowway producer, has done it again! His daring expose "Of Human Bondage" is the best play of the century. Starring in the production are Jo Ann Messer, Earl himself, and Ada Lou Steger.

Donna Weiss has been resting after a strenuous ten performances of "The Divorce of Figaro" at the Metropolitan Opera House.

Harriet Parker and Emma Jean Greer are home demonstrators for the new machine, perfected by Harris Carter, Jr., that cleans pipe cleaners; Carl Morrow is completing a derivation on this device that will also deflea dogs.

Vos Moutos has been appointed ambassador to the moon from Greece. He has a famous, custom built space ship, designed by Arnold Schneeman and built by Dale Christall, that rolls over the wheeses when out of fuel.

Jo Reid Shanklin and her troop of the Starvation Army conduct all the tent revivals on the moon. Jerre Nibling is in charge of the seating arrangements.

Gilbert Flores received an award for notable service in the field of parenthood.

Van Snodgrass is the representative for Electronic Elevated Space Slippers.

Carolyn Holt has been selling Buick space scooters to all the Aggies so they might get home in time for Christmas. Arlen Cone is her head salesman.

Peggy King attended the party on the arm of her "Feller." Her torch singing currently has been the main attraction at Frank Steve Manitzas's "Next to the Last Resort."

Delvis Guess, owner of Guess's Goose and Gander Grounds, has reported a flock failure. He and his chief goose-gatherer, Guy Bott, have been down in the mouth over it.

Paula Smith and Charlotte Shelby are the designers of Helpo-Shapo Garments. The original idea for these articles came from the fashion designer Seymour Skin.

Vayden "Bunion Toes" Stanley was arrested for dancing in the streets of Luna City after 3:00 in the morning. Accompanying him on his spree were Gaither Paddock, D. L. Shuffield, and Billy White. These three managed to escape the clutches of the law by singing "Jesus Wants Me For A Sunbeam." They therefore became a religious gathering and could not be molested.

Robert Teetor distributed samples of his full course-dinner capsules. His advertising slogan is "I have a steak in every capsule."

Marilyn Scott has plenty of customers for the embalming business resulting from the explosions of Clifford Jackson's space ships.

One of the best sellers of the year is the book "How to Stop Living and Start Worrying" by Dale Messer.

Hassy S. (Brad) Miles is having his mansion redone. He is removing all the balconies, sinking his presidential yacht, and declaring Key West off limits.

Glenn Lewis managed to escape, due to his girl's parents' influence, from a charge of disturbing peace on a lonely asteroid. The unknown female is believed to be Gayle Franks.

Caterers at the reunion were John Rutherford, Jimmy Kinsey, and Harris G. Carter. All the corsages for the banquet were designed by Judy Moritz Morgan, the politician's wife. Meals were cooked by the head chef, Don Alexander. Kathy Adair took pictures of the group.

A gay time was had by all, and it was unanimously agreed that this was the best Senior Class ever to come from SAHS.

Sure, it's a tough old world... but you can lick it! With your priceless heritage of American freedom you are invincible. Your individual rights are your best "weapons" in the fight to safeguard democracy from an ever-encroaching socialism. These rights must be guarded, and to guard them you must have the courage and will to work, save, vote, and pray.

FREEDOM of SPEECH and your TELEPHONE

The telephone industry in the United States, while serving freedom of speech, also typifies freedom to operate your own business. For our telephone industry is small business as well as large. The Independent telephone industry, to which we belong, consists of over 6,000 companies serving $\frac{2}{3}$ of the area of the United States. Dial telephones and the telephone handset are among the over 100 major developments by the Independent industry. Working free of governmental or private monopoly, the American telephone industry has created a service system unequalled anywhere in the world.
